

WELCOME

When you are faced with saying goodbye to someone dear to you, we want to help your family focus on comforting one another and on celebrating the life that was lived. So we offer a total care commitment to provide your family with guidance and peace-of-mind before, during, and after the loss of a loved one.

Many difficult decisions may have to be made, but we will support you through the process every step of the way. Since our founding, The Good Funeral Home has treated every family that walks through our door like they were our own. We are resolute in maintaining this tradition.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to serve every family we meet. So if you have an immediate need for our services or if you wish to begin pre-planning funeral arrangements for yourself or someone you love, please contact us.

ABOUT The Good Funeral Home

We understand that no one wants to talk about planning a funeral. However, funerals provide an important opportunity for relatives and friends to gather and celebrate the life of a lost loved one by telling memorable stories and sharing favorite memories. Our beautiful and spacious facility was designed to provide comfort to families so they can simply focus on supporting one another.

We've gathered together a staff of highly-qualified and deeply caring individuals to assist us in continuing the funeral home's mission to build a bridge from grieving to healing by guiding and educating people through one of the most difficult points of their lives. We listen to each family's vision and ideas to ensure their loved one's life and story can be memorialized in a meaningful way.

Helping you plan

Are you looking to add a personal touch to your loved one's funeral service? Would you like to browse through our catalog of memorialization options? Maybe you want to learn more about planning your own funeral?

We've made most of our information available for you to review on our website in the comfort and privacy of your home. However, if you would prefer to talk to someone in person, just let us know when you would like to meet.

Helping you grieve

When a loved one passes away, it's often a very difficult time for family and friends. Our experience has taught us that, those left behind can feel lost and alone. Many do not know who to turn to or how to cope.

Our grief support programs are structured to help during this challenging period and to make each day a little easier for you after your loved one has passed. Even if their passing wasn't recent, please call us if you have any questions.
